

V. Ashleigh Sargent, Project Manager

V. Ashleigh Sargent is a Project Manager with The Sargent Consulting Group, LLC. Ashleigh brings organizational skills and creative flair to a variety of projects serving internal and external clients.

Prior to joining SCG, Ashleigh worked and lived in Europe and Asia. She taught English in Paris and Ulsan, South Korea. Ashleigh is a proud graduate from The Ohio State University, where she studied French Language and Culture as well as General Business Administration. She received her B.A. in 2007, placing on the Dean's List each of her four years.

Ashleigh is a dedicated runner and has participated in every race from the 5k to the full marathon. She has especially enjoyed running in the different countries in which she has lived. Ashleigh also enjoys hiking, swimming and adventure sports like sky-diving. She is active in community service and was most recently involved in T.H.O.P.E., an organization in South Korea where she worked as a volunteer English teacher in an orphanage.
